Clay Conway, Ph.D. Geology, Appointed as Consultant to the Company

Kent Exploration Inc (the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Clay Conway, Ph.D. Geology as a geological consultant to the Company.

Mr. Conway graduated from Brigham Young University in 1966 with a B.Sc. Geology and obtained his Ph.D. in Geology from the California Institute of Technology in 1975. He is a Fellow of the Geological Society of America, a Fellow of the Society of Economic Geologists, a Member of the Arizona Geological Society, is registered as a professional geologist in both Utah and Arizona and is a Qualified Person as defined by National Instrument 43-101.

As a Research Scientist at the U.S. Geological Survey from 1975 to 1996, he had responsibility for Mineral Resource Assessment of public lands, which included mineral deposit research with a specialty in massive sulphide and other mineral deposits in proterozoic rocks in the south-western U.S.

He has been an independent geologic consultant since 1996, primarily in mineral exploration on both disseminated and vein style gold deposits in the U.S. and Saudi Arabia, and has expertise in structural geology, and interpreting geospatial data and remote sensing imagery.

Clay brings his considerable geological expertise to the Company as the lead consultant on its 100% optioned Flagstaff property in north-east Washington, a barite associated gold/silver/lead/zinc property and its 100% optioned Rosebud property, a gold/silver prospect in north-west Arizona.
